VOLUME NUMBER XXXVII. CANYON, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JUNE 8, 1933 NUMBER 12

PRESIDENT APPROVES PARK IN CANYON

SUMMER SESSION OF W. T. OPENS WITH GOOD ATTENDANCE

ATTENDANCE IS ABOVE NUMBER EXPECTED HERE

Work Started in All Classes Yesterday Morning

704 ARE ENROLLED

All Faculty Members Are Teaching During the Summer

Enrollment for the summer session of W. T. numbered 704 this morning, according to Registrar D. A. Shirley. While the number is under the enrollment of the first three days of last year, yet it is above the contemplated attendance considering conditions. 630 students have paid their fees at the office of Business Manager Travis Shaw. The students have until Monday to make this payment.

All members of the faculty are here for the summer session, and report that classes are large. No extra instructors were called in for the summer as the regular members wished to handle the session.

The increased fees which were ordered by the attorney general to become effective for this session did not cause the confusion which was anticipated by the authorities. Most of the students were aware before reaching Canyon that the legislature had passed the bill increasing the fees for the summer and were prepared to pay the additional sum which was imposed by the legislature.

It is expected that the attendance will be materially increased during the next few days, and many students will not reach Canyon before the end of this week.

Class work started yesterday.

Dr. J. A. Hill expressed great pleasure at the way in which the summer session is opening, and stated that the faculty members will make this the best session the College has ever had.

Dr. Hill Attended Regents' Meeting Held in Austin

President J. A. Hill returned Saturday from Austin where he attended the meeting of the Board of Regents to discuss the matter of fees for the summer school. Owing to an opinion from the attorney general's department it was found necessary to increase the fees in accordance with the bill passed by the legislature, this increase was made to apply to the summer session now in progress.

Governor Ferguson signed the bill Saturday which will increase the fees for the regular session opening in September.

Dr. Hill was accompanied home by his son, Joe Hill, Jr., who suffered broken bones in his foot at Austin last week where he is a student in the University of Texas.

Lewis Shirley accompanied Dr. Hill on the trip to Austin and return.

Coach S. D. Burton Died Last Night

Famous Athletic Director for the Past 12 Years

Coach Sam D. Burton died suddenly last night at 9:50 o'clock after collapsing at The Buffalo while conversing with Harry Woods. He lived only about five minutes, and seemingly was unconscious from the time of the collapse. Heart trouble was pronounced by physicians as the cause of his sudden death.

Funeral arrangements had not been made this morning, pending advice from relatives.

Members of his immediate family who survive are his wife and two children, Sam D. Jr., and Martha Nell. The coach was 45 years of age.

The death of Coach Burton removes one of the most famous athletic coaches in the United States. His field has been all lines of college sports, but basketball has been his favorite and the one in which he made his greatest success. Although he had never played a game of basketball, he was recognized as one of the most successful coaches in the country, developing super teams during his 12 years in Canyon. His teams have attracted attention of all followers of the sport. During 10 years in the T. I. A. A., the Buffaloes have won six championships, and never finished lower than third place.

The past two years Coach Burton has taken the Buffaloes to the National A. A. U. tournament at Kansas City where a most impressive record was made. It was his ambition to return there next year with a team, which he believed to be of championship calibre.

As an advocate of clean athletics, Coach Burton has done much to raise the standards in the Southwest. His football team of last year was undefeated, but did not win the conference title owing to one tie game.

The death of Coach Burton came as a distinct shock to the College and to the community. He had been in unusually good health, following a serious illness two years ago.

Coach Burton was a member of the Methodist church, of the Masonic lodge, and Woodman of the World.

PRESIDENT HILL SPOKE AT CISCO COMMENCEMENT

President J. A. Hill was commencement speaker Monday night at the commencement exercises of the Cisco high school. Of five names suggested as commencement speaker to the class, Dr. Hill received three-fourth of the votes of the class membership.

Prices Take Jump Startling To Merchants

Merchants are scratching their heads and wondering at the rapidly increasing prices.

Food prices started to climb several weeks ago.

Dry goods prices are on the incline.

In many instances merchandise cannot be replaced for the prices at which the stocks in Canyon are marked for sale.

Going off the gold standard is said by some to be the cause.

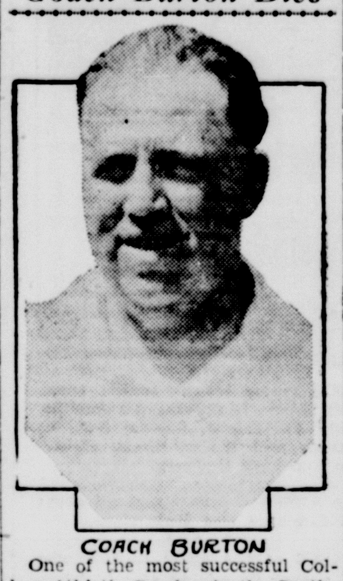
Scarcity of stocks is said by others to be the cause.

Return of prosperity is said by others to be the cause.

No matter what the cause may be, it is an assured fact that the price level is rapidly increasing in practically every line.

The merchants are not trying to kid the people into buying before prices go higher; but they are calling attention to the improved market prices as a sure sign of a higher level during the coming year. The buyer of today will no doubt see the article in which he invests selling at a higher price when stocks are renewed.

Coach Burton Dies



COACH BURTON

One of the most successful College Athletic Coaches in the Southwest and a recognized authority in America on basketball was S. D. Burton, who died suddenly last night.

T. H. McDonald Is Head of W. T. Ex-Students for Year

The Ex-students Association of W. T. will be lead during the coming year by T. H. McDonald, of Pampa. He was elected at the luncheon held at Cousins Hall last week, immediately after the Commencement exercises. At the same time John McCarty of Dalhart and Everett E. Key of Lubbock and W. D. Biggers of McLean were elected vice presidents. Herschell Jennings and Lee Johnson of Canyon were chosen secretary and treasurer.

On the board of directors new members are Lee Gilmore, Wheeler; Irby Carruth, Canyon, and Mrs. Betty Smalley Vaughter, of Byers.

The luncheon program was in charge of the class of 1931, with Malcolm Hunt, vice president, as toastmaster. Others who were on the program were Keith Guthrie of Hereford, who responded to the welcome address; Professor L. S. Baker who spoke briefly of Bartow Johnson, deceased president of the 1931 class; Frances Usery, who played several piano selections, and Irby Carruth, who gave a report of his year's work. The address prepared by Dr. J. A. Hill was read by Dean R. P. Jarrett, as President Hill was forced by a meeting of the Board of Regents at Austin, to be absent.

About 150 ex-students and friends attended the luncheon.

Morton Angel Is Arrested Connection Bank Robbery

Morton Angel of this city, Louie Turner and Ernest Rowe, of Amarillo, were arrested Sunday, charged with robbing the First State Bank of Wildorado two weeks ago. Angel was taken to Amarillo by Sheriff Bob Barnett where he was turned over to the Oldham County sheriff. Bond was made Tuesday in the amount of $2,500.

W. J. Pottorff, finger print expert, made the investigation which led up to the charges being filed against the trio.

The safe of the bank was taken from the building, most of the furniture being wrecked in the procedure. The safe was hauled to the Money school house south of Umbarger where it was forced open. Less than $300 in cash was the reward of the band who took the safe.

The case will be tried in the next session of the district court at Vega.

Penalty, Interest Reduced on Delinquent State Taxes

Penalty and interest that has accrued on state and county taxes, delinquent on or before February 1, 1933, has been released by the legislature, providing, however, that a penalty of one per cent is now due on taxes delinquent at this time, regardless of the year or years. The penalty will increase to two per cent after September 30, 1933, and to four per cent after December 31, 1933, and to six per cent after March 31, 1934; and the law will expire and become void after June 30, 1934, at which time the accrued penalty and interest again become due as before.

This law is mandatory in its application to state taxes and county and common school districts, but is not applicable to cities and independent school districts until a resolution is passed by the governing boards thereof adopting the law. The penalties given above are not accumulative.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cash and Miss Dorothy returned Sunday from College station where Harvey Jr. received his degree Saturday in electrical engineering.

PLAN COUNTY FIGHT OPPOSE BEER PROJECT

Organization Is Formed to Fight Beer Amendment

HARDIN WILL LEAD

Precinct Chairman Will Be Named by Executive Committee

Prohibitionists in Randall county will make an aggressive fight against the beer amendment on August 26. A meeting at the court house Monday night decided upon a campaign of action which will be carried on a county-wide scope before the special election.

Irby Carruth was elected secre- chairman to direct the campaign.

Senator J. W. Reid was named vice chairman.

Irby Carruth was eected secretary-treasurer.

The executive committee for the county is composed of the above three, together with Judge S. B. Orton and Clyde W. Warwick.

An advisory committee in Canyon is composed of G. B. Heath, J. W. Shook, C. R. Burrow, George W. Cox, W. A. Warren, C. A. Higdon, C. O. Huber, Mrs. Frank Hcks, Mrs. C. M. Dowlen, Mrs. Harvey Cash, Mrs. D. Mack Stewart, Mrs. C. R. Flesher, Mrs. Lester Weaver, Mrs. Elizabeth Fry Page, Miss Mattie Mae Swisher.

Selection will be made of prohibitionists in every precinct of the county to carry on the fight prior to the election. The organization nominations were made by a committee composed of Clyde W. Warwick, J. H. Cox, Jr., W. H. Stroud, G. B. Heath, G. G. Foster and S. B. Orton.

The meeting Monday night was presided over by Judge Orton. Porter Underwood of Amarillo, secretary of the United Forces for Prohibition of the 31st Senatorial district, explained the campaign as is being carried on in the state. J. M. Cook of Amarillo is chairman of this district.

"During the saloon days 350,000 men went annually to a drunkard's grave," stated Mr. Underwood. "The liquor interests are seeking the return of the open saloon, and this number of drunkards will be recruited."

"The drys went to sleep with the passage of the 18th amendment, and they are not yet awakened to the danger," stated the speaker. He urged the drys to get busy now, and make a personal canvas of the county.

Meetings will be held in Randall county during the coming month with the view of getting out the full vote on August 26th.

Locates Water Wells With the Forked Stick

"It is so absurd that it is embarrassing," says J. W. Shanklin in regard to his ability to locate water veins by means of the forked stick. Nevertheless, Mr. Shanklin has located water wells in Texas, old Mexico and Porto Rico, and has never failed.

"Some of these times the thing will fail, and I'll get shot," stated Mr. Shanklin.

J. B. Elliston had Mr. Shanklin out to the site of the Palo Duro park camps locating well sites yesterday. The stick worked in the hands of both of them.

Mr. Shanklin states that an old Scotchman showed him the trick when he was a lad 8 years of age. He has been locating wells ever since, and so far has not failed. What it is that makes the stick turn when the water vein is located, Mr. Shanklin does not hazard to even guess. But so far, it has always worked for him.

1,000 MEN TO START WORK IN PALO DURO

Two Parks Near Canyon Will be Improved at Once

STARTS AT ONCE

Engineers Expected Here to Start Improvement Project

By executive order from the White House Thursday afternoon, two state parks were established in the Palo Duro Canyon in Randall county. President Roosevelt signed the order which takes over the Byars Bros. land east of this city, consisting of 14,466 acres, and also a half section of the Palisades which is northeast of Canyon.

The president established four work camps on the Byars land and one in the Palisades, giving five camps for the two projects. Each camp will be allowed $18.000 in cash for the purpose of buying materials for the development of the parks.

For the present at least the parks will be controlled by the Texas State Parks board. D. E. Colp last week named J. B. Elliston of Canyon as his assistant to have charge of the work here. Col. Oscar A. Seward of Amarillo was named chief engineer.

In addition to the above, Mr. Colp has named Howard Trigg of Amarillo as camp superintendent in the Palo Duro, with assistants, W. J. Williams of Plainview and Ed M. Owens of Galveston.

Federal engineers from the National Parks system are expected at any moment to make plans to start work. It is stated that the government has the 1,000 men, who will be assigned here for the five camps, nearly ready to place in these camps.

Plans are being made for the development of a water supply, and building roads into the canyon. These will be the first steps taken.

Mr. Elliston states that two camps will be established on top, the first on the east side of the Palo Duro, and later the one on the west side. As soon as camps are located, roads will be built into the canyon. When it is possible to take supplies into the canyon, the two other camps will be established at the bottom of the Palo Duro.

At the present time offices will be maintained in Amarillo, which is accessible to all points of the two projects. As soon as the roads are completed into the canyon, it is planned to move the offices to Canyon. The third story of the court house has been offered to the engineers and superintendents.

Col. Seward stated yesterday that it was necessary that the road leading east from Canyon be widened to 100 feet in order that it may be designated as a state highway. It is likely that this designation will be requested at the next meeting of the State Highway Commission. Col. Seward has been with the state highway department for several years and expects that this highway will be hard surfaced

Cash Register Is Robbed During Day at Furniture Store

The cash register at the furniture department of Thompson Hardware Co. was robbed Monday afternoon about 3:00 o'clock. Mrs. T. C. Thompson was the only clerk in the store at the time. While waiting on a customer in the south part of the building, she thought she heard some one at the back of the store, but did not discover the theft until later.

Boys were seen at the back of the store about the time of the robbery, but no one has been connected with the theft. Only a few dollars were taken, as the small change was overlooked by the thief.

This is the first time that a day light job has been attempted in Canyon.

Governor Ferguson Signs Money Bill

Governor Ferguson signed the appropriation bill for the educational institutions yesterday without any vetoes in the items. The governor established a record in having signed all appropriation bills passed by the legislature the past session without a single veto. All of the bills were more than the 25% reduction demanded by the Governor in her campaign last year, and the demand of the Democratic platform.

W. T. was hit especially hard in the appropriation bill this year, being cut more than 50% over the appropriation by the last legislature. For next year the appropriation amounts to $146,827, which includes $11,110 for the summer session; and $135,717 for the second year, which makes no provision for a summer session in view of the fact that the legislature will meet before time for the session.

Dr. J. A. Hill states that while the reduction is very great, he and members of the faculty are not complaining; that they are going to continue the very best work that has ever been done at W. T., and prove to the State that this institution is doing a great work for the youth of this section.

FOUR AMENDMENTS

Again the News urges that the voters turn to the four constitutional amendments printed in this issue and read the provisions carefully. These measures will be voted upon on August 26th, and to vote intelligently, the voter should devote some time in studying the measures.

The long amendment is submitted for the purpose of bringing home rule to counties with population of 62,000 population or more. We wonder why the legislature should think that counties having only 61,999 population or less do not have brains sufficient for home rule without going through a lot of red tape, as provided for in the amendment. It is well known that the bulk of the trouble and expense of the legislature is due to passing "local" bills referring to one county, and this constitutional amendment seeks to shift the burden of these local measures back to the counties, where the people may act upon them. Students of government have long recognized the fact that the duplication of work in the counties, cities and local school districts are really the ones piling up the burdens of government. The aim of this constitutional amendment is for the people of each county to say whether or not there shall be two or three peace departments; three assessing and collecting departments; two or three departments along every other line of government. The News believes that if the people are really in earnest about reducing the cost of government that they will favor this amendment.

Last November the people voted in favor of the $3,000 homestead exemption for state taxes. There are 17 coastal counties which have bonded themselves to build sea walls and make other improvements in the way of public protection. The legislature has at various times remitted the state taxes on these counties over periods of years. When the $3,000 exemption was voted, no provision was made in extending this exemption to these counties at such time as their exemption from state tax payments expired. This amendment is corrective only in nature, and was a slip which occurred when the amendment was presented to the people. While opposed to the theory of exemption, the News will support this amendment as being only a just thing to these counties.

The third amendment provides for a bond issue of $20,000,000 to match federal money for relief. The federal government has laid down the edict that unless the state will furnish this money, that no federal aid will be given during the coming two years to provide for charity cases. There is bitter opposition to any sort of a bond issue at this time. But it is an assured fact that Texas will have to take care of all her charity cases the coming winter unless this bond issue is passed. The smaller counties could take care of their charity cases more economically by paying the bill themselves than through the state bond issue, but this is not true of the larger counties and cities where the burden is tremendous. The legislature inserted a provision in this constitutional amendment which states that these bonds shall not be a lien upon either real or personal property. The question naturally arises how will the bonds be paid off? Will any one buy the bonds with such a provision in them? Some provision must be made to pay back this money, or no one will buy the bonds. Some sort of special tax must be levied, and it is suspected that the sales tax will be the one finally chosen to repay the bond issue. Howwever, what bond buyer would feel secure in putting up $20,000,000 with no assurance that this special tax would not be repealed by the next session of the legislature, leaving him high and dry. The News has not decided which way it shall go on this amendment. We hate to make it impossible for the state to take adequate care of the unemployed through this period of stress, but at the same time there are so many serious objections to the amendment.

The fourth amendment is the one to legalize the manufacture and sale of 3.2% beer. Of all the silly proposals this one is the limit. The idea that the return of beer and establishment of saloons will return prosperity is most ridiculous. However, we recognize the fact that the people of America have thrown old ideas to the wind, and are accepting most any sort of proposal which tends to freedom of thougnt and action. Using money for beer when the families are needing bread may appeal to a sense of justice to some men. If this amendment is carried, we are certain that the charity amendment should by all means carry as the charity cases will be increased when men take the bread out of the mouths of their families in order to buy beer. Furthermore, opening the saloons will turn out many men who today are holding some sort of jobs. Railroads and big industrial plants will not tolerate drinking on the part of their employes. To open the saloons will be an invitation to hundreds of men to forget their duty to their families, and squander their hard earned money for liquor. By all means, this amendment should be defeated. Yet we recognize the danger of its carrying.

James E. Ferguson in The Forum last week expressed disappointment over the work of the last session of the legislature in view of the fact that no revenue producing measures were passed. As a matter of fact, the Fergusons have failed to put over any of the campaign promises. While the House was pretty well controlled by Ferguson, the Senate was noted for being against the administration. This is nothing to elicit great surprise, however. Governors who are serving their second term usually fail to have the co-operation of the legislature. This is the fourth term for the Fergusons.

Postmaster General Farley sends out word for administration leaders to get busy to legalize beer and to repeal the 18th amendment. Our guess is that all hoping to receive federal patronage must support these proposals or get left in the shuffle. You can almost imagine that a majority of the post office seekers over the nation will be found working for the wet element of the Democratic party, or be left out of the running. Mr. Farley has a blunt way of giving orders.

The legislature fixed up Texas in fine shape, authorizing gambling on horse races, prize fighting, and authorizing a chance to bring back the saloons. At the same time education and educational advantages were swatted with might and main.

Possibly a good many of us are just sore at J. P. Morgan because our names were not on his favorite list. At least he did not forget to play politics. Calling the list reminds one that both prominent republicans and democrats were included.

The bonus boys left Washington when the government offered them work instead of money. It has been suspected from the very start that most of the bonus marchers were not the real American ex-service men, but agitators seeking an easy living.

A zoo has been offered for the Palo Duro State Park. The question of providing feed for the animals would be the big problem. However with the development of the park this feature will be included.

AN EXPENSIVE LESSON

The future of government-in-business is not so bright as it seemed awhile ago.

The people have discovered something. They have found that the only way their community can build, for example, a power plant, is to float a bond issue. They have found that this requires vast sums of additional tax money—laid on top of already onerous taxes. They have found, too, that when such technical endeavors as power plants are operated by politics, deficits customarily occur. These, as well, must be paid by the people through increased taxes. Again, they have found that bookkeeping for a publicly owned utility, not subject to public regulation, is of a curious sort. Pleasant reports are issued, which take little or no account of overhead, depreciation, wear and tear. When the time comes for replacement of broken down machinery there is usually no money in the till—and the tax payer is agained called upon.

People are learning by dear experience that when government goes into business in competition with its citizens, they have lost, not gained—that such service furnished them "at cost" means generally "at cost" to their own pocketbooks. The proponents of schemes to put government into business never put up the money—they put up the "spiel" to obligate the tax payer and then they absorb tax funds through countless new jobs.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

MAJOR LEAGUES THIS SEASON BOAST MOST PROMISING CROP OF ROOKIES TO GRACE THE DIAMOND IN MANY A MOON

BY PHILIP MARTIN

DOFF your hat to one of the most promising groups of rookie ball players who ever graced the major leagues!

The present baseball season, getting off to a good start in both circuits, has produced several phenomenal finds who seem destined to take the place of the slipping graybeards before long.

Among the rookies are Don Brennan and Russell Van Atta, two hurling recruits of the Yankees who have been burning up the distance from the pitching mound to the plate with all sorts of stuff. These two youngsters are exceptionally valuable now, with the sale of George Pipgras to the Red Sox, and both have been turning in their share of wins.

The Boston Braves seem to have cashed in on their $50,000 investment in Dick Geyselman and Al Wright, two rookies they bought from the Pacific Coast League last year. Dick, especially, is proving a great ball player. His fielding and hitting are keeping the Braves' in the thick of the fight. Playing with Rabbit Maranville in the infield has steadied the youngster a lot.

The Brooklyn Dodgers are lucky to have such a kid as Walter Beck around. The young hurler has pitched Max Carey's crew to several wins this year, and it looks as if he's getting better as he goes along.

JOE CRONIN turned up with a couple of rookies this year who won several ball games for him. The first, Bob Boken, was unearthed when Buddy Myer was injured. Boken's big bat boomed from then on, winning two games for the Senators on successive days. The other sensational rookie is Cecil Travis, a kid infielder from Chattanooga, whom Joe recalled after Ossie Bluege was injured.

Travis batted and fielded his way to wide recognition in a recent series with the Indians, and with his performance it's doubtful if Cronin will put the weak-hitting Bluege back into the fray.

Merritt "Sugar" Cain seems to have taken the Philadelphia laurels away from Lefty Grove. The young hurler has shown a classy assortment of stuff so far, and has turned in several nice wins. Along with Cain, Mack has an outfielding pair, Coleman and Johnson, which makes the Athletics' fans forget all about Al Simmons and Mule Haas.

SOME of the other rookies who appear promising are: Knickerbocker, Indians; Medwick and Allen, Cards; Fox, Detroit, and Jack Knott, Browns.

Boxer Invents New Punch

The popular English boxer, Len Harvey, has devised a new punch—but not of the jab variety. It is a machine which will print and punch bus and trolley tickets, and do away with possible errors on the part of conductors. He is shown above, left, with a relative, working on the invention.

Programs Planned for Summer Session of the College

A number of public entertainments will be given this summer by the Speech and Music departments, according to arrangements which were completed early this week.

Professor Wallace R. Clark, head of the Music department will give a lecture-recital early in the first term. Besides his extensive study in this country, Mr. Clark has studied singing in the E. Ffrangcon-Davies Studio, in London. Mr. Clark is a recognized musical authority in Texas, and his knowledge of madrigal literature puts him in the front rank of American authorities in that field.

Miss Frances Usery, a recent graduate of this college and a brilliant pianist will give one or more piano programs.

It is possible that one of these public programs will be a play, Miss Brown being known throughout West Texas for the excellence of her productions. Mr. Batchelder delights audiences with his readings.

All women students are invited to these meetings, where acquaintances and friendships may be formed under happy conditions.

The College Music Department is offering a special group-study plan to students this summer. Those entering the groups for study of voice, violin, or piano will pay a fee of only $5.00 for the summer's instruction or $3.00 for a six week's term. These groups are taught by the regular instructors of the department. Persons interested should see Professor Wallace R. Clark in Room 3, Administration Building.

Young people of the Methodist church are invited to attend a social hour at Wesley Camp on the Methodist Encampment Ground, June 11 from 4 to 6 o'clock. Wesley Camp has been built since last summer and students, new and old, are urged to acquaint themselves with this new place of recreation.

Watch the bulletin board for announcements of meetings, or see Dr. Albert Barnett or Professor S. H. Condron.

Group study in Speech will be available for students who want work on this basis. The fee is $20.00 for 12 weeks, and students who can attend only six weeks may arrange to double in the work and get the equivalent of 12 weeks work in one term. Under this plan the student has one-hour of work each week in a small group, not to exceed six, and one-half hour of individual work with the instructor. Miss Mary Morgan Brown states that this plan has been very successful, students declaring that they receive much benefit from their work with other members of the group.

The annual summer college reception will be held Saturday evening at 8:15 at Cousins Hall, and every student in the college is invited to be present. Dr. Harris M. Cook, chairman of the Social Committee is in charge of arrangements, and every member of the faculty is expected to be present to assist in making the occasion a happy one for all.

Rotary Club Hears Reports on Chicago Trip, Park, College

Mason King, Wilbur C. Hawk and Joe A. Hill were introduced at the Rotary Club Tuesday by T. C. Thompson to discuss vital questions of immediate interest. T. C. "saved his own speech for another day."

Mr. King explained the Amarillo Globe-News trip to Chicago when all expenses to make the eight day trip will amount to $75. The trip includes railroad fare, pullman, meals, hotel bills, bus transportation, three trips into the Century of Progress grounds, sight seeing trips over Chicago. "A person may make the trip without spending a single dollar more than the $75 if they so choose," stated Mr. King.

Mr. Hawk talked on the Palo Duro Park project, expressing the belief that it would be one of the biggest projects in the west. He praised the work that had been done by Canyon citizens who have been affiliated with the movement, specially mentioning J. B. Elliston, Judge S. B. Orton, Fred E. Wortham and Clyde Warwick. The ground work which has been laid during the past two years is responsible for the quick action in putting over the project. Ray V. Davis was praised for the work he had accomplished. Mr. Hawk stated that while Amarillo had no Chamber of Commerce, it was necessary for the Globe-News to underwrite the expense of the present campaign which amounted to about $1,000. "This is one of the biggest things accomplished in the United States this year."

Judge S. B. Orton reviewed the work that had been done during the past two years starting with the opening of the road to the canyon, the establishment of the park, and the surveys which had been made.

Joe Hill stated that when he came to Canyon on June 10, 1910, the talk was for a state or national park in the Palo Duro. This has finally been accomplished. Mr. Hill explained about the cuts in appropriations made by the recent session of the legislature. The College was going to continue doing the very best work that it could possibly give. None of the faculty members were complaining, but all were determined to prove to the state that this institution was worth while, and was performing a real service to the state.

The Rotary Club will go to Panhandle Friday night where an inter-city program will be put on.

Visitors Tuesday were: Wilbur C. Hawk, Mason King, Ben Anderson, Col. Oscar Seward, all of Amarillo; J. B. Elliston and S. B. Orton of Canyon.

Beatrice Cote, above left, stewardess of the S. S. George M. Cox, and George M. Miss Cote suffered a wrenched back when the ship ran aground. Below is the U. S. revenue cutter Crawford, which rescued the passengers and crew.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF TEXAS

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article IX of the Constitution of Texas be amended by adding thereto a section to be Section 3, which shall provide:

"Section 3. (1) Holding the belief that the highest degree of local self government which is consistent with the efficient conduct of those affairs by necessity lodged in the Nation and the State will prove most responsive to the will of the people, and result to reward their diligence and intelligence by greater economy and efficiency in their local governmental affairs, it hereby is ordained:

"(2). Any county having a population of sixty-two thousand (62,000) or more according to the then last Federal Census may adopt a County Home Rule Charter, to embrace those powers appropriate hereto, within the specific limitations hereinafter provided. It further is provided that the Legislature, by a favoring vote of two-thirds of the total membership of both the Senate and the House of Representatives, may authorize any county, having a population less than that above specified, to proceed hereunder for the adoption of a Charter; however, as a condition for such authorization, it is required that notice of intent to seek Legislative authority hereunder must be published in one or more newspapers, to give general circulation in the county affected, not less than once per week for four (4) consecutive weeks, and the first of such publications shall appear not less than thirty (30) days next prior to the time an Act making proposal hereunder may be introduced in the Legislature. No County Home Rule Charter may be adopted by any county save upon a favoring vote of the resident qualified electors of the affected county. In elections submitting to the voters a proposal to adopt a Charter (unless otherwise provided by a two-thirds vote of the total membership of each House of the Legislature) the votes cast by the qualified electors residing within the limits of all the incorporated cities and towns of the county shall be separately kept but collectively counted and the votes of the qualified electors of the county who do not reside within the limits of any incorporated city or town likewise shall be separately kept and separately counted, and unless there be a favoring majority of the votes cast within and a favoring majority of the votes cast without such collective cities and towns, the Charter shall not be adopted. It is expressly forbidden that any such Charter may inconsonantly affect the operation of the General Laws of the State relating to the judicial, tax, fiscal, educational, police, highway and health systems, or any other department of the State's superior government. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the adoption of a Charter provision inimical to or inconsistent with the sovereignty and established public policies of this State, and no provision having such vice shall have validity as against the State. No Charter provision may operate to impair the exemption of homesteads as established by this Constitution and the Statutes relating thereto.

"(3) a. A Charter hereunder may provide: the continuance of a County Commissioners' Court, as now constituted, to serve as the governing body of a county to operate hereunder; or may provide for a governing body otherwise constituted, which shall be elective, and service therein shall be upon such qualifications, for such terms, under such plan of representation, and upon such conditions of tenure and compensation as may be fixed by any such Charter. The terms for service in such governing body may exceed two (2) years, but shall not exceed six (6) years. In any event, in addition to the powers and duties provided by such Charter, such governing body shall exercise all powers, and discharge all duties which, in the absence of the provisions hereof, would devolve by law on County Commissioners and County Commissioners' Courts. Further, any such Charter may provide for the organization, reorganization, establishment and administration of the government of the county, including the control and regulation of the performance of and the compensation for all duties required in the conduct of the county affairs, subject to the limitations herein provided.

"b. A Charter hereunder may provide that Judges of County Courts (including that County Court designated in this Constitution), and Justice of the Peace be compensated upon a salary basis in lieu of fees. The jurisdiction of the County Court designated in this constitution, and the duties of the Judges thereof, may be confined to that general jurisdiction of a probate Court which elsewhere is defined in this Constitution. The office of Justice of the Peace may be made either elective or appointive. Other than as herein provided, no such Charter shall provide for altering the jurisdiction or procedure of any Court. The duties of District Attorney and or County Attorney may be confined to representing the State in civil cases to which the State is a party and to enforcement of the State's Penal Code, and the compensation of said attorneys may be fixed on a salary basis in lieu of fees.

"c. Save as hereinbefore and hereinafter otherwise provided, such Charters, within the limits expressed therein, may invest the governing body to be established for any county electing to operate hereunder with the power to create, consolidate or abolish any office or department, whether created by other provisions of the Constitutions or by statute, define the duties thereof, fix the compensation for service therein, make the same elective or appointive and prescribe the time, qualifications and conditions for tenure in any such office; save, that no such Charter other than as hereinbefore authorized, shall provide to regulate the status, service, duties or compensation of members of the Legislature, Judges of the Courts, District Attorneys, County Attorneys, or any office whatever by the law of the State required to be filled by an election embracing more than one county. Excepting herefrom nominations, elections or appointments to offices, the terms whereof may not have expired prior to the adoption of this Amendment to the Constitution, at such time as a Charter provision adopted hereunder may be in effect (save as to those offices which must continue to be elective, as herein elsewhere specified), all terms of county officers and all contracts for the giving of service by deputies under such officers, may be subject to termination by the administrative body of the county, under an adopted Charter so providing, and there shall be no liability by reason thereof.

"d. Any county electing to operate hereunder shall have the power, by Charter provision, to levy, assess and collect taxes, and to fix the maximum rate for ad valorem taxes to be levied for specific purposes, in accordance with the Constitution and laws of this State, provided, however, that the limit of the aggregate taxes which may be levied, assessed and collected hereunder shall not exceed the limit or total fixed, or hereafter to be fixed, by this Constitution to control counties, and the annual assessment upon property, both real, personal and mixed, shall be a first superior and prior lien thereon.

"e. In addition to the powers herein provided, and in addition to powers included in County Home Rule Charters, any county may, by a majority vote of the qualified electors of said county, amend its Charter to include other powers, functions, duties and rights which now or hereafter may be provided by this Constitution and the statutes of the State for counties.

"(4). Any county operating hereunder shall have the power to borrow money for all purposes lawful under its Charter, to include the refunding of a lawful debt, in a manner conforming to the General Laws of the State, and may issue therefor its obligations. Such obligations, other than those to refund a lawful debt, shall not be valid unless authorized by a majority of all votes cast by those resident qualified voter of the area affected by the taxes required to retire such obligations, who may vote thereon. In case of county obligations, maturing after a period of five (5) years, the same shall be issued to mature serially, fixing the first maturity of principal at a time not to exceed two (2) years next after the date of the issuance of such obligations. Such obligations may pledge the full faith and credit of the county; but in no event shall the aggregate obligations so issued, in principal amount outstanding at any one time, exceed the then existing Constitutional limits for such obligations and such indebtedness and its supporting tax shall constitute a first and superior lien upon the property taxable in such county. No obligation issued hereunder shall be valid unless prior to the time of the issuance thereof there be levied a tax sufficient to retire the same as it matures, which tax shall not exceed the then existing Constitutional limits.

"(5). Such Charter may authorize the governing body of a county operating hereunder to prescribe the schedule of fees to be charged by the officers of the county for specified service, to be in lieu of the schedule for such fees prescribed by the General Laws of the State; and, to appropriate such fees to such funds as the Charter may prescribe; provided, however, no fee for a specified service shall exceed in amount the fee fixed by General Law for that same service. Such Charters as to all judicial officers, other than District Judges, may prescribe the qualifications for services, provided the standards therefor be not lower than those fixed by the General Laws of the State.

"(6) a. Subject to the express limitations upon the exercise of the powers by this subdivision to be authorized, such Charters may provide (or omit to provide) that the governmental and- or proprietary functions of any city, town, district or other defined political subdivision (which is a governmental agency and embraced within the boundaries of the county) be transferred, either as to some or all of the functions thereof, and yielded to the control of the administrative body of the county. No such transfer or yielding of functions may be effected, unless the proposal is submitted to a vote of the people, and, unless otherwise provided by a two-thirds vote of the total membership of each House of the Legislature, such a proposal shall be submitted as a separate issue, and the vote within and without any such city, town, district, or other defined governmental entity, shall be separately cast and counted, and unless two-thirds of the qualified votes cast within the yielding defined governmental entity, and a majority of the qualified votes cast in the remainder of the county, favor the proposed merger, it shall not be effected. In case of the mergers hereby authorized, without express Charter provision therefor, in so far as may be required to make effective the object of the proposed merger, the county shall succeed to all the appropriate lawful powers, duties, rights, procedures, restrictions and limitations which prior to the merger were reposed in, or imposed upon, the yielding governmental agency. Particularly, it is provided that the power to create funded indebtedness and to levy taxes in support thereof may be exercised only by such procedures, and within such limits, as now are, or hereafter may be, provided by law to control such appropriate other governmental agencies were they to be independently administered. Such mergers may be effected under proposed contracts between the county and any such yielding governmental agency, to be approved at an election as hereinbefore provided for. In order to increase governmental efficiency and effect economy the county may contract with the principal city of the county to perform one or more of its functions, provided such contracts shall not be valid for more than two (2) years.

"b. In cases of the partial or complete merger of the government of a city operating under a Home Rule Charter, with the government of a county operating hereunder, those city Charter provisions affected thereby shall cease to control, and the county Charter provisions shall control.

"c. When any embraced incorporated city or town elects to merge its governmental functions with those of the county under the provisions hereof, such Charter may provide for defining or redefining the boundaries of such cities and towns, provided, however, that in defining or redefining the boundaries of such cities and towns, such boundaries may be extended only to include those areas contiguous to such cities as are urban in character; and as to such cities or towns and for the benefit thereof the county, in addition to the primary city and county tax herein authorized and any other lawful district tax, may levy and collect taxes upon the property taxable within such city or town as defined or redefined, within the limits authorized by Sections 4 and 5 of Article XI of this Constitution, (or any Amendment thereof) for incorporated cities according to the population, provided that no tax greater than that existing at the time of such merger or for any added purpose shall be imposed upon any such city or town unless authorized by a majority of all votes cast by the resident qualified voters of such city or town.

"d. Areas urban in character though not incorporated, under appropriate Charter provision may be defined as such by the governing body of the county, provided, however, that no portion of the county shall be defined as an urban area unless it has sufficient population to entitle it to incorporate under the then existing laws of the State; and no such urban area, when created, shall be vested with any taxing or bonding power which it would not possess if it were operating as a separate incorporated unit under the then existing Constitutional and Statutory provisions of this State; and provided further that the governing body of the county for the government of such areas shall have and exercise all powers and authority granted by law to the governing bodies of similar areas when separately incorporated as a city or town, and such areas shall be subject to additional taxation within the same Constitutional limits as control taxation for a city or a town of like population. Likewise such Charter may provide for the governing board of the county subject to existing Constitutional and statutory provisions to define, create and administer districts, and have and exercise the powers and authority granted by the Constitution and laws relative to the same.

"(7). No provision of this Constitution inconsonant with the provisions of this Section 3, of Article IX, shall be held to control the provisions of a Charter adopted hereunder, and conforming herewith. Charters adopted hereunder shall make appropriate provision for the abandonment, revocation, and amendment thereof, subject only to the requirements that there must be a favoring majority of the vote cast upon such a proposal, by the qualified resident electors of the county; and, no Charter may forbid amendments thereof for a time greater than two (2) years. The provisions hereof shall be self-executing, subject only to the duty of the Legislature to pass all laws (consistent with) which may be necessary to carry out the intent and purpose hereof. Further, the Legislature shall prescribe a procedure for submitting to decision, by a majority vote of the electors voting thereon, proposed alternate and elective Charter provisions."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held throughout the State on the fourth Saturday in August, 1933, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following:

"For the Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution of Texas, adding Section 3, providing authority for the adoption of a Home Rule Charter by the voters in counties having a population of sixty-two thousand (62,000) or more, to effect more sufficient and economical government within such counties, and to authorize mergers of separate governmental agencies within such counties as may from time to time be authorized by vote of the people therein."

"Against the Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution of Texas, adding Section 3, providing authority for the adoption of a Home Rule Charter by the voters in counties having a population of sixty-two thousand (62,000) or more, to effect more efficient and economical government within such counties, and to authorize mergers of separate governmental agencies within such counties as may from time to time be authorized by vote of the people therein."

Each voter shall scratch out one of the above listed clauses on such ballot, leaving unscratched that particular clause which expresses his vote on the proposed Amendment to which it relates.

Section 3. The Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation ordering an election in conformity herewith to determine whether or not the proposed Constitutional Amendment set forth shall be adopted, and the Governor shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

HOW'S YOUR ADVERTISING

"How's business?" On the trains and the streets, in clubs and stores —wherever business men meet, the inevitable question is: "How's business?"

The answer, whether "Good" or "Bad," should be followed by another question:

"How's your advertising?"

The answer to that question is almost certain to have a direct bearing on the state of business as a whole, for whenever buyers are as shy as they are now, sales are dependent on advertising.

Present advertising is not so much bad advertising as it is inadequate advertising. When sales are needed more than any other one thing, too many business men, with fine inconsistency, have cut out or restricted the use of their most effective selling tool. Those managers who have the courage to look facts in the face have found the falling sales curve following, in a most disquieting way, the curve of curtailed advertising appropriations. Some others with courage to continue advertising have found sales at least buoyed up, if not booming.

The ultimate purpose of sound advertising is to make profitable sales. Properly used, it will do just that. No business man should complain about the state of his business until he can answer to his own satisfaction the question: "How's your advertising."—E. V. Thompson in Nation's Business.

CONOCO
GAS AND OILS

CONOCO BRONZE'S claims to superiority have received the most tremendous indorsement ever accorded a new gasoline.

Motorists in vast numbers talked and wrote of their experiences with instant starting, lighting pick-up, improved anti-knock, greater mileage and power of Conoco Bronze. They proved its unusual qualities in new cars and old-timers.

Take any motor car manufacturer's claims of car performance . . . add a plus if you use Conoco Bronze! Where performance counts . . . or economy is stressed, here is a gasoline whose perfection is greater than the car engineers counted upon.

Users all say it is a great gasoline. At Red Triangle stations everywhere.

at state expense before the park is ready to open.

Herbert Maier, reforestation officer, of Denver, will likely do the planning for the Palo Duro Park, according to information from Washington.

The dream of more than 30 years will come true in the establishment of the park in the Palo Duro The possibilities have long been realized, but it was the depression which finally made the project possible. The need for worthy projects on which men might work during the coming fall and winter led the federal government to take over the building of the park.

The Byars Bros. land has been in charge of Fred A. Emory of Chicago, who has had the park vision for many years. It was through his planning that the project was finally brought to a close. Mr. Emory succeeded in getting the land owners and mortgage owners to deed the property to the State with the provision that concession rights during the coming 15 years be turned over to the property owners. The land cost neither the state nor federal government a cent at the present time.

Methodist Assembly Over Week End at the Wesley Camp

The first Adult Assembly which has ever been held in the Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Church will take place at the Methodist Encampment, June 10, 11 and 12. It is expected that several hundred members of Methodist churches from the entire region will spend the three days at the camp, hearing the plans of the church, receiving inspiration from lectures, and at the same time enjoy a pleasant outing.

All Methodists are invited, according to local leaders, and those who wish to secure their meals on the grounds can do so at a rate of $2.00 for the three days; single meas may be had also.

Arrangements have been made to rent a limited number of cots and mattresses, but those who have their own supplies are urged to use them as there will not be enough on hand for every one.

Among those of the Canyon church who will appear on the program are Rev. C. W. Foote who will preach the sermon and conduct the communion service Sunday morning at 11 o'clock; Miss Mattie Mae Swisher, who will have charge of the singing, and S. H. Condron, who will deliver one of the lectures.

All Methodists who are in town for the summer are invited along with all resident Methodists to this meeting. All will be interested in visiting Wesley Camp, the recently erected center for young people.

Wranglers Plan Work For Summer Months at W. T.

The Wranglers, Scout troop of college girls, has a good summer's work already planned, and will have its first meeting for all the girls of the college next Wednesday night when a Co-Ed dance and swim will bring out all the fun-loving girls of the campus population.

The Wranglers have been in existence for a year and during that time have helped a large number of girls to get the experience and training which will enable them to have good times themselves and organize Girl Scout Troops in schools where they teach.

Singing, hand craft, games, camp cooking, story telling, and nature lore are things of interest to the Wranglers who find fun and recreation in these and hikes, "nose-bag" suppers, swimming and other outdoor affairs.

Eula Ann Elliott, a Wrangler of the regular session, has already organized a Scout Troop near Portales, New Mexico, and has written back to W. T. for help.

Students who wish information about the Wranglers can get it from Mr. Baker, Mr. Condron, Mrs. Green or Mr. Shirley, for the officers for the summer have not yet been named.
